

HAIL TO MEN

Even unto old age you may feel the vigor of youth, with its light heart, elastic step, courage and tireless energy. You may be free from pains and aches and defy your years.

There is a fountain of perpetual youth, and you have only to reach out your hand and take it. You can drink of it until your heart shouts with gladness, and with all your might you will proclaim, as other men have:

"I AM A MAN!"

Like the giants of old, you can be in your prime at 60—strong, vigorous and full of youthful enthusiasm.

W. J. McLaughlin, H. T., Jan. 27, 1902.
Dear Sir:—I am writing to let you know that I have greatly benefited by the use of your belt. I can honestly say that it is worth its weight in gold. I have recommended it to several parties here, and also to some in Honolulu.
Yours very truly,
ALEX. SHEPPARD.

REGIMENTAL DRILL.

The companies of the First Regiment of the National Guard of Hawaii were given regimental drill last night.

Col. Jones was in command. The first battalion was under Major Zeigler and the second under Major Camara. Col. F. the prize winner of the regiment was on the right of the first battalion.

The men were marched through the principal streets of the city and then to Capitol Square for drill.

The announcement was made that a vacation would be extended to the guardsmen releasing them from further duty until August 18 on account of the Merchants and Agricultural Fairs which will be given in the drill shed.

Medals won in rifle and drill competition were given out to the winners and the prizes won by Captain Johnson and Company F were delivered to the company commander. There was a loving cup for Captain Johnson.

The British have lost 39,616 men in the Boer war, exclusive of the wounded who died after returning.

DARING BASE-RUNNING

AS A MEANS TO SUCCESS

BY CONNIE MACK,

Manager of the Philadelphia American League Club.

It is not unusual for ball players to advance the claim that they cannot play as good a game in one city as they can in another, or their work is better against certain teams, while with others they appear at a disadvantage.

Again, players have frequently complained that a hoodoo hangs about them, or other superstitious ideas. Many of the major League players also feel they can put up a specially good game against certain clubs. Bill Lange, of the Chicago Club, had this feeling when he played against Pittsburgh. He always seemed to be able to successfully make any play he undertook, and was feared by the entire Pittsburgh team.

One of the most remarkable feats ever performed on the ball field was effected at Pittsburgh. After reaching first base, Lange took a good lead, as was customary. The pitcher threw to first to catch the player off base. He threw a trifle wide and the ball rolled a few feet from the base. The distance was far from great, and not one player in a hundred would have been desperate enough to take his foot off the first bag. Lange started for second. The ball again went a trifle wide of the mark. It struck the second baseman's hand and rolled toward shortstop. Lange did not stop, but kept on to third. The shortstop hustled for the ball to head Lange off at third base. The runner did not halt at third, but continued the circuit and came straight for the plate. The ball was thrown to Denny Lyons, who was covering third base. He turned to put the ball on Lange, whom he expected to catch at third.

His surprise was great when he saw his player making for home and only a few yards from it. Before the ball reached the catcher's hands, Lange has scored the run, and not only did he bring in the run, but what was of greater importance, won the game on that run. The play, in my estimation, was the most daring and remarkable ever witnessed on the ball field.
